

Above: The upper-basement spine corridor. Note the serving hatch from the kitchen on the left. The sign in the middle distance reading 'Floor 28' is, rather confusingly, pointing to the stairs up to the surface building above. This dates from the 1950s when the floors of all buildings were consecutively numbered by the GPO. Hence the two-level bunker with its single floor building above ground became floors 26-28.